[8:05 pm] On agenda item XII, a motion was made to "Recommendation to the City Planning Commission and Los Angeles City Council that the Hollywood Community Plan Update (HCPU) impose an inclusionary housing requirement on all new residential and residential mixed-use development projects with ten or more dwelling units, requiring that 15% of the rental units be dedicated to affordable housing for Low or Very Low Income tenants. An alternative in-lieu fee payment would be calculated on liveable area, and would be in compliance with an annually updated city fee schedule. The inclusionary housing requirement would be in lieu of the City Planning Department's current proposal of a Community Plan Implementation Overlay (CPIO) District that would replicate Transit Oriented (TOC) incentives."
